

THE BOOKSTORE OF GLOUCESTER

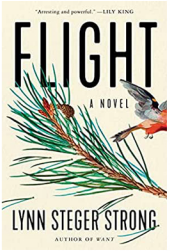

Fall / Winter 2022

Hello friends near and far! We are gearing up for our 47th Holiday Season here at The Bookstore! There have been lots of great titles coming out with more on the way in the coming weeks; we're sharing some here that are garnering great reviews and some that we got a sneak peek at during the NEIBA Fall Convention. We are encouraging everyone to make their holiday lists early and as we get closer to December, if you see something you like, don't hesitate to pick it up! We are anticipating shipping and printing delays yet again but will do our best to stock up on bestsellers and favorites!

Cheers to sweater weather and getting cozy with a stack of books!

Staff Picks

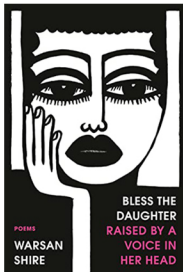

Arwen's Pick: 'Flight'
by Lynn Steger Strong publishing Nov 8th

Siblings and their partners convene for the first Christmas without their mother. Tensions rise as they try and decide what they'll do with the family home.

(Another fave: 'When the Stars Go Dark' by Paula McLain)

Nicole's Pick:
'Bless the Daughter
Raised By A Voice In Her Head: Poems'
by Warsan Shire
published Mar 1st

Shire's first full-length collection is a force to be reckoned with. Themes of trauma, migration, womanhood, and resilience weave throughout.

(Another fave: 'The Binding' by Bridget Collins)

Aurelia's Pick:
'Fun Home' by Alison Bechdel

In this graphic memoir, Bechdel talks about her relationship with her late father. A classic, award winning graphic novel.

(Another fave: 'The Stars and the Blackness Between Them' by Junauda Petrus)

Charlee's Pick:
'Emergent Strategy'
by adrienne maree brown
Brown takes concepts from Octavia Butler's science fiction series and applies them to community organizing.

Tegan's Pick:
'Book Lovers' by Emily Henry
Henry's latest is another nice 'beach' read! Perfect for Fall too.

Titles with an asterisk next to them are more staff faves!
